The event started with the speech of Mr. Prabhakar Ranjan on Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat programme aims to enhance interaction & promote mutual understanding between people of different states/UTs through the concept of state/UT pairing.

India has a rich history of translating literature from various languages into regional languages. The demand for translated books has grown in recent years, reflecting the country's linguistic diversity and the expanding readership interested in global literature. Here are some key points about the state of translated books in India.

The Indian perspective has been providing in necessary books his/her as pr needs translated books. Some books as- Introduction to disability, Principle of Education, Concept of curriculum.

He motivated the students to the search of the EBSB Day. The students of B.Ed SE showed their interest and asked their questions without hesitation. The aim of the event was to motivate students and aware them about the EBSB Day.
