Report: Description in (min250tomax800 words)*

As part of the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) initiative, an activity on "Importance of News in Developing Language Skills among Students" was organised by the EBSB Club. The activity aimed to enhance students' reading, listening, speaking, vocabulary, pronunciation, comprehension, and communication skills through news reading and presentation.

The session was introduced by Mr. Prabhat Ranjan, EBSB Club Incharge, who explained the objectives of EBSB and the importance of news in developing language proficiency and awareness of current affairs.

Students actively participated in reading and presenting news, focusing on pronunciation, fluency, voice modulation, and clear communication. They also discussed important news items, shared their opinions, and identified key information.

The activity incorporated Bloom's Taxonomy by encouraging students to remember information, understand news content, apply language skills, analyse information, evaluate news, and create short news presentations.
