As part of the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) initiative, an awareness programme on "Reading of Translated Books" was organised with a special focus on Assam as the paired State. The activity aimed to provide students with an opportunity to learn about the language, literature, culture, traditions, and heritage of Assam through translated literary works.

The event started with an informative speech by Mr. Prabhat Ranjan on the objectives of the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Programme. He explained that EBSB promotes interaction and mutual understanding between people of different States and Union Territories through the concept of State/UT pairing.

During the session, Mr. Prabhat Ranjan introduced the students to the culture and literary heritage of Assam. He highlighted the importance of reading translated books and explained how translation enables students to explore literary works originally written in Assamese and understand the cultural perspectives of the people of Assam.

The session also provided an opportunity to learn about Assam's rich cultural traditions, festivals, folk traditions, language, and literary heritage. He further explained that India has a rich tradition of translating literature between different Indian languages. Reading translated books can help students overcome language barriers and develop appreciation for the cultural and literary diversity of different regions. The students of B.Ed. Special Education actively participated in the Assam-based EBSB activity. They showed interest in learning about Assamese literature and culture and engaged in discussions related to translate books. Students were encouraged to ask questions and share their understanding of Assam's language, literature, culture, and traditions.
